Year 7 have now completed their first Round of Examinations.

Well Done to Year 7 on completing their first round of examinations. The week held many new challenges for the students which I was pleased to see them undertake with pride and enthusiasm. During the coming weeks they should make sure they revise their marked papers and use them as a guide for improving their knowledge and improving future results.

Well Done Year 7, you made it!

Column 7, Tips and Advice for Year 7’s
♦ Well Done to all Year 7s in their sporting pursuits over the weekend!

♦ Wear your uniform properly. Teachers will give you detentions if it is not worn correctly! Boys this means tuck your shirts in.

♦ Keep working on achieving academic points! It’s great to see a lot of you getting points - keep it up!

♦ Don’t forget to get me photos and stories for the Herald!

Birthdays Week 7! Kate Orange, Sarah Coupland, Elise Bennett and Siobhan Herbert.
Year Seven Week 7

Monday
Normal Classes

Tuesday
Assembly in the Performance Theatre.

Wednesday
The UNSW Science Competition will be held in periods 5 and 6 in the DPA for all Year 7

Thursday
Normal Classes

Friday
Normal Classes
Green Day! Stay tuned for details in tutor

- Some Boarders may be getting buses early in the day so make sure you check your travel details.

Saturday
The Queens Birthday long weekend begins!