Kinross Wolaroi School is a co-educational Independent School of the Uniting Church. It has a strong history of excellent academic results along with a wide co-curricular program, with students who have excelled at all levels. We are a non-selective school of some 1000 students, nestled in the NSW central tablelands of the city of Orange. Kinross Wolaroi School has a proud tradition of educating young people in a family-centred environment where ideals are based solidly on friendship, spirituality, the security of family values, hard work and the pursuit of excellence to the very best of one’s ability. The School offers the unique opportunity for co-educational learning with separate boarding sites for boys and girls. Students are provided with a holistic education and we pride ourselves in offering a varied curriculum to meet the needs of students.

Support for the culture of an Independent Uniting Church School is an essential prerequisite.
