Kinross Wolaroi School is a co-educational Independent School of the Uniting Church. It has a strong history of excellent academic results along with a wide co-curricular programme, with students who excel at all levels.

We are a non-selective school, nestled in the NSW central tablelands of the city of Orange. Kinross Wolaroi School has a proud tradition of educating young people in a family centered environment where ideals are based solidly on friendship, spirituality, the security of family values, hard work and the pursuit of excellence to the very best of one’s ability. The School offers the unique opportunity for co-educational learning with separate boarding sites for boys and girls. Students are provided with a holistic education and we pride ourselves in offering a varied curriculum to meet the varying needs of most students.

We are seeking to fill the following four teaching positions starting in Term 2, resulting from Maternity or Long Service Leave:

- Mathematics - (0.6 or Full Time)
