Kinross Wolaroi School values its community and believes that when used appropriately, social media can provide a great means of keeping conversation flowing between all members of our School family and friends.

To get the most out of your online 'conversations' just remember these simple School do’s and don’ts:

- Keep it friendly – Kinross Wolaroi School is an encouraging and positive place, so let’s make sure that is reflected in our online posts.

- Keep it fair – don’t post anything that may be seen as abusive, defamatory, racist, derogatory, malicious or in any way offensive. We’ll simply remove your comments and may block your account.

- Keep it clean – just as you would be respectful in face-to-face conversations, make sure you maintain those high standards online. We’ll remove anything that includes swearing or obscenity.

- Keep it lawful – be careful not to post anything that might be against the law.

- Keep it relevant – remember where you are and only share information that is relevant to our School community. Please don’t post commercial messages or spam, or embed links in your posts to try and draw readers to another site. Users that break this rule will be blocked.

- Keep it tidy – please don’t use ALL capitals or write nonsense. Such posts will be removed.

- Don’t share personal information on our timeline – the timeline is for general comments only. If you have a personal query or comment, please message us privately by clicking on the ‘Message’ button at the top of the page.

- Don’t infect us – don’t put links to malicious sites or attach files containing viruses. Your account will be blocked.

- Feedback is welcome – we value all opinions and aren’t precious about criticism. But please ensure your comments adhere to the standards above ie. friendly, fair, clean etc.

- We love suggestions – got an idea to make our School even better? We’d love to hear from you.

- We like to share – anything you post, including photos and comments, may be used again by Kinross Wolaroi School to promote our School in any manner or media, without legal or monetary obligation to the author.

- Your opinions are your own – we love to see people joining the conversation, but please remember that posts on Kinross Wolaroi School’s social media pages do not necessarily reflect the opinions of Kinross Wolaroi School, nor can we confirm their accuracy.

- Follow the rules – by using or accessing Facebook or Twitter pages, you agree to comply with Facebook and Twitter Terms and Conditions.

If any posts contravene these guidelines, we reserve the right to delete them and block any user who continues to break the rules.
If you have any questions or would like to report misuse of our social media sites, please email our Marketing and Communications Manager, Vanessa Hannan.
