Private Study Arrangements: Students in Years 11 and 12 should note the following:

- When no examination is scheduled for you, studying at home is permissible (if your parents are happy with this arrangement) or studying in your boarding house is OK (with permission from your Head of House).
- You may use the library for private study. However, it must be silent, private study. If you wish to study with another student you will need to make an arrangement with the library staff (such as booking a study room).

Students cannot have a phone in the exam room, must have a stapler, cannot use whiteout, and water bottles must be transparent.
