- Acknowledge each student will be different and have their own strengths and weaknesses.
- Support and assist students to live comfortably within a foreign environment.
- Respect the students’ right to privacy whilst realising that privacy does not equate to isolation.
- Acknowledge the significance of culture, customs, language and beliefs in the life of their student and accommodate these appropriately.
- Assist, support and nurture where needed or requested, but keep in mind that a desire to please may be interpreted as interfering by the student.

Applicable house rules should be explained i.e. what time dinner is, telephone/ internet protocols, no smoking, no alcohol, guests visiting, curfews, household tasks and bathroom conduct.
- Monitoring and controlling appropriate and reasonable internet usage in the home.
- Offering interest in the cultural background of the student can assist in building a strong relationship between student and host.
- Respect the students’ need for privacy and allow them space to be alone.
- Adapt a “duty of care” approach towards their homestay student.
- Liaise with the Kinross Wolaroi School International Student Exchange Coordinator regarding any concerns or difficulties.
